

41 Mixed Up Purses

Five women named Paula, Pat, Pam, Penny, and Peggy bumped into each other and spilled the contents of their purses. They all lost one item from their purses. They each lost either a lipstick, a compact, a comb, a file, or a keyring. Their last names were either Jones, Smith, Johnson, Doe, or Dixon. They all worked as either a doctor, lawyer, teacher, judge, or pilot. Based on the clues, match their first names with the items each lost, their last names, and their jobs.
